Overview

Neil M. Alexander is a shareholder at Littler Mendelson in the Phoenix office. Neil is Co-Chair of the Staffing, Independent Contractors and Contingent Workers Practice Group and serves on the firm's Board of Directors. He is a trial attorney who regularly defends companies against claims involving:

- Wrongful termination
- Unfair competition and trade secret violations
- Noncompetition agreements
- Whistleblower and retaliation
- Harassment and discrimination
- Title VII of the Civil Rights Act
- The Age Discrimination in Employment Act
- The Americans with Disabilities Act
- The Family and Medical Leave Act

Neil regularly appears in state and federal courts in Arizona and Nevada and before the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission, the Department of Labor, the Arizona Civil Rights Division and the Nevada Equal Rights Commission. His clients include:

- National retailers
- Staffing firms
- Call centers
- Professional employer organizations
- Financial institutions
- Healthcare clients

Neil's practice includes counseling clients on employment risk management for employee workforce or individual employee decisions, workforce design and maximizing contingent worker options while ensuring compliance, contingent workforce co-employment exposures, compliance with the ADA and the FMLA, and other legal issues.

Neil also regularly contributes to articles in newspapers and magazines and authors publications for national trade association newsletters. He has been interviewed on national radio and is frequently quoted in national and regional publications.

He is a frequent keynote speaker for national and state trade associations, client internal events and client appreciation events regarding employment law updates, contingent workforce issues, and employment law compliance related topics.
