Overview

Adam Gottschalk represents employers in various aspects of labor and employment law. He is part of the firm's Litigation and Trials practice group.

Prior to joining Littler, Adam was a civil attorney for the City and Borough of Juneau and he served as a judicial law clerk for Superior Court Judge Kari C. Kristiansen in Palmer, Alaska.

During law school, Adam was a member of The Elder Law Journal and he interned with the U.S. Department of Labor and the Office of the Indiana Attorney General.

While Adam is originally from upstate New York, he has been in the Alaska "orbit" since interning at Gates of the Arctic National Park and Preserve in 2009.
