Overview

Alejandro Antonio García Valls joined the Business Area in April 2021, following his time as a trainee under the guidance of Alfredo de Sandoval. He intervenes in civil, business, and administrative litigation, advising companies and associations from different economic sectors, both in contentious matters and in consultancy and legal advice activities.

He graduated in Law and Political Sciences and Public Administration at the Universidad Autónoma de Madrid. Captivated by the branch of Law, he specialized in Economic Criminal Law at the IEB and in International Business Law at ESADE (Barcelona), where he would, simultaneously, take the Master's Degree in Access to the Bar.

He previously worked as a representative in Spain for the World Business Dialogue in Köln, Germany and as a researcher at The HUS.institute think tank.
