Overview

Alexandra Bernstein advises and represents employers in all matters of labor and employment law.

During law school, Alexandra was a production editor of the Loyola of Los Angeles Law Review, a member of Loyola's Willem C. Vis International Commercial Arbitration Moot Team and competed in Hong Kong, and was Vice President of Outlines and Tutoring of Loyola's St. Thomas More Law Honor Society. She served as a judicial extern for the Honorable George H. Wu of the U.S. District Court, Central District of California and for the Honorable Jeannie M. Joseph of the Orange County Superior Court. She also was a summer associate in Littler's Los Angeles office.

Prior to attending law school, Alexandra worked in sales at a Fortune 100 technology company and worked in sales and account management at a start-up.
