Overview

Alke Sundermann advises clients in the fields of occupational pension schemes, litigation and the law of termination. Her wide-ranging professional and personal experience enables her to understand both the perspective of her clients and the interests of the opponent. With her mixture of empathy and assertiveness, Alke finds solutions that satisfy all parties involved.

Previously, Alke has worked in the area of employment law at several other law firms.

Additionally, Alke has subject-specific foreign language training for common law lawyers at WWU Münster (FFA) with an internship at the Superior Court of Juvenile Justice in San Francisco. She has studied at the Université Paris X Nanterre, Paris, and served a legal clerkship at the Higher Regional Court of Schleswig.
