Overview

Anastasia Stylianou represents and advises management in labor and employment matters before federal and state courts in New Jersey and New York, the EEOC, and state agencies. Her practice focuses on labor and employment counseling and litigation, dispute resolution, and defense strategies in claims involving alleged discrimination, harassment, retaliation, whistleblowing, restrictive covenants, and breach of contract.

Prior to joining Littler, Anastasia worked at a large New Jersey law firm defending public and private employers in litigation and arbitration. Anastasia also served as a law clerk to the Honorable Thomas V. Manahan, Superior Court of New Jersey, Appellate Division.
