Overview

As a member of the Littler CaseSmart – Charges™ team and based in Oklahoma, Angela M. Paulsen is responsible for handling charges from investigation to conclusion. She works on client-dedicated service teams, focusing on handling administrative agency charges. She investigates charge allegations, reviews pertinent documents, interviews key witnesses, and provides clients an assessment of the risks associated with the charge. In partnership with the client, she defends the charge by drafting persuasive position statements and responses to the agency's requests for information.

Angela's background includes handling labor and employment law matters and litigation for large, international organizations, with significant experience in private practice representing management in a wide variety of industries. She has extensive experience negotiating with organized labor, defending management in labor union arbitrations and negotiating collective bargaining agreements. She is skilled in negotiating and drafting contracts and handling virtually all types of litigation matters. She previously served as a director of human resources, where she gained insight to the client's perspective.
