Overview

Ava Pfeiffer defends management clients in labor and employment law matters.

Previously, Ava concentrated in financial services litigation and investigations as well as employment law at a large international law firm. She defended numerous leading broker-dealer firms against suitability, fiduciary duty, fraud, and state and federal securities laws and FINRA claims. Ava defended global banks against various state and federal claims, conducted internal investigations and advised clients on risks and mitigation, as well as advocated at mediations, arbitrations, and through written advocacy.

Prior to legal work, Ava worked for more than nine years as an analyst and risk manager at a global bank.
