Overview

As a member of Littler’s Knowledge Management department, Christine L. Sellers Sullivan monitors legislative and regulatory developments and conducts research in all areas of labor and employment law. Christine is also a contributor to Littler GPS®, for which she provides analysis of recently enacted statutes and regulations.

As a member of both the American Association of Law Libraries (AALL) and Southeastern chapter of the American Association of Law Libraries (SEAALL) for more than a decade, Christine has held a wide range of committee and leadership positions. She also previously served as both a board member and vice president of the South Carolina Arts Foundation Board.

Prior to joining Littler, Christine was a Senior Research Specialist at a national law firm and a Legal Reference Specialist at the Law Library of Congress.
