Labor Management Relations

Overview

Eduardo Vargas Cortes has a broad background in labor and employment law matters. He has experience representing clients in all aspects of traditional labor law, including in representation cases, union organizing campaigns, conducting manager training sessions, defending against unfair labor practice charges, collective bargaining, and labor arbitrations. Eduardo also advises clients regarding compliance with federal, state and local labor and employment laws, and reviews workplace policies.

Before joining Littler, Eduardo was a labor and employment attorney in Los Angeles at a national general practice firm, where he focused on traditional labor and other employment matters. His diverse experience equips him to offer clear and effective counsel tailored to the needs of clients.
