Overview

Gary J. Lieberman represents management in all matters of employment and labor litigation, conducts sensitive investigations, and provides legal counsel and advice on all aspects of the employment relationship with particular emphasis on:

- Federal and state discrimination and harassment cases
- Wrongful termination claims
- Whistleblower and retaliation claims
- Defamation
- Wage and hour disputes
- Disability leave laws and compliance
- Litigation prevention measures

Gary has extensive experience defending large financial institutions and retail establishments as part of their national portfolio of employment lawsuits. Gary also has experience representing hospitals and employers in the manufacturing and hospitality sectors. His litigation practice includes first chair trial experience, the defense of employers in state and federal courts, agencies and arbitral forums throughout the country, including the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (EEOC), the Department of Labor (DOL), Occupational Safety and Health Administration (OSHA). Gary has developed particular skills in defending financial institutions in arbitration claims before the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority (FINRA).

Appearing regularly in federal and state courts, his experience includes defense of single-plaintiff lawsuits and jury trials related to:

- Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964
- The Americans with Disabilities Act
- The Family and Medical Leave Act
- The Age Discrimination in Employment Act
- The Fair Labor Standards Act

Gary also provides practical and business-focused advice to employers on a wide variety of workplace issues, including leaves of absence, accommodations, employee discipline and discharge, employment and separation agreements, hiring, employment policies and handbooks, internal investigations and compliance.

Select samples of Gary's litigation experience include the following:

- Won jury verdict in a four day trial in the Northern District of Illinois alleging FLSA and wage claims for a large financial institution
- Led a Littler defense team at trial in Ohio State Court alleging violations of the ADA and Ohio Civil Rights Act. Judge returned a directed verdict dismissing claims and successfully handled appeal
- Won complete dismissal of a race discrimination claim in the Northern District of Alabama alleging race and gender discrimination
- Led Littler team in prevailing on motion for summary judgment on claims of religious discrimination in the Western District of Pennsylvania
- Prevailed at a three day FINRA arbitration on behalf of a broker-dealer alleging defamation on a Form U-5 and wrongful termination
