Overview

Jakob Zöchling focuses his practice in counseling clients in the broad field of labor leasing, among other labor and employment matters.

From the very beginning, labor and social law has been his preferred field of law, which is why he focused on this area while still a student. Following this passion, Jakob also decided to focus his practice in labor law right from the beginning of his professional career.

Jakob graduated in Business Law and Economics at the University of Economics and Business Administration in Vienna. During these studies he spent a term abroad at the University of Canterbury, New Zealand. He successfully passed the bar exam in February 2023.
