Overview

Janice Sued Agresti advises and represents employers in a broad range of labor and employment matters arising under both state and federal laws.

Before joining Littler, she clerked at an established regional law firm, and also served as a judicial intern for the Hon. David R. Strawbridge, Magistrate Judge for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania, and the Hon. Garrett D. Page, Judge in the 38th Pennsylvania Judicial District. During law school, Janice was a staff editor for the Temple International and Comparative Law Journal and was a board member of the Latin American Law Students Association and School Discipline Advocacy Service.

Before practicing law, Janice taught high school history in Philadelphia and New York City, where she honed her public speaking and persuasion skills.

Janice is bilingual and has a master's certificate in bilingual and minority language education, which can help her serve clients in two languages. She is a member of the firm's Reunión affinity group, serving on the recruitment, retention and mentoring sub-committee.
