Overview

Kimberly R. Miers is the Office Managing Shareholder of the firm's Austin office. She has experience in a variety of state and federal labor and employment law matters, with an emphasis on:

- Complex class and collective action litigation
- Wage and hour advice
- Workplace Investigations
- Title VII single plaintiff and class litigation
- Equal Employment Opportunity Commission negotiations and litigation
- Department of Labor matters

She regularly advises clients in all areas of employment law practices and policies, including wage and hour compliance, employee discipline and counseling and internal investigations. Among her notable successes, Kimberly has:

- Obtained arbitration awards in favor of client accused of misclassifying independent contractors
- Obtained a complete defense verdict in a FMLA retaliation lawsuit
- Obtained summary judgment in favor of an employer in an FLSA off-the-clock lawsuit and prevailed on Plaintiff's appeal to the Fifth Circuit
- Obtained a jury verdict in favor of an employer in a federal whistleblower lawsuit
- Defended a large multi-family housing corporation against allegations of misclassification and "off the clock" work by obtaining decertification of a nationwide class and then obtaining a jury verdict in favor of the employer

- Defended a Fortune 100 retailer against allegations of harassment and obtained a favorable settlement mid-trial
- Obtained a jury verdict in favor of an employer in a federal race discrimination lawsuit
- Defeated a plaintiff's motion for conditional class certification in a nationwide wage and hour class action lawsuit
- Defended a wage and hour class action lawsuit brought by truck drivers in which she also defeated class certification, obtained summary judgment based on the Federal Motor Carrier Act exemption and prevailed on appeal
- Defended a large national retailer, a national country club services corporation and a hospital against charges that they forced nonexempt employees to work "off the clock"
- Defended an apartment locator company, national delivery services company, a staffing company, a homebuilder, a fuel distributor, national mortgage loan provider, national home health provider, healthcare enterprise and a manufacturing company against allegations of misclassification
- Obtained summary judgment in a FLSA lawsuit alleging off-the-clock work
- Obtained decertification in a nationwide wage and hour class action lawsuit against a homebuilder

Prior to joining Littler Mendelson, Kimberly was a senior employment attorney for a leading retailer. After law school, Kimberly served as law clerk to the Honorable Dixon W. Holman of the Texas Second Court of Appeals.
