Overview

As a member of the Littler CaseSmart – Charges™ team and based in Florida, Lisa Kabula is responsible for handling charges from investigation to conclusion. She works on client-dedicated service teams, focusing on handling administrative agency charges. She investigates charge allegations, reviews pertinent documents, interviews key witnesses, and provides clients an assessment of the risks associated with the charge. In partnership with the client, she defends the charge by drafting persuasive position statements and responses to the agency's requests for information.

Prior to joining Littler CaseSmart, Lisa provided legal counsel, training, and advice to human resources regarding all aspects of employment law and managed global and domestic employment litigation, including class actions. She developed and implemented compliance programs with respect to all aspects of employment law, including wage and hour laws.

Previously, Lisa was an assistant general counsel at Ryder System, Inc., and was a labor and employment associate with two law firms in Atlanta. During law school she was managing editor of the Georgia State University Law Review.
