Overview

Matt Freemann's practice encompasses advising management on labor and employment law matters. He has extensive experience defending a wide range of clients, from Fortune 100 companies to small businesses.

He was selected to both the National Litigation Team and the Employment Law Committee while with previous law firms, affording him the opportunity to litigate employment matters in federal and state courts in Colorado, Wyoming, Utah, and New Mexico. Before entering private practice, Matt clerked for Judge Anne Ollada in the 18th Judicial District of Colorado.
