Overview

Mihret Getabicha represents clients in a variety of labor and employment litigation matters involving retaliation, discrimination, failure to pay, failure to accommodate, and breach of contract claims. This includes experience handling matters before arbitral tribunals, California administrative agencies, state courts, and federal courts. Mihret also drafts policies and advises employers regarding California and federal labor and employment standards.

Prior to joining Littler, Mihret practiced in the employment groups of two Southern California law firms. She previously clerked for an immigration firm in Los Angeles.
