Overview

Staci Olvera Schorgl is a member of the Littler CaseSmart® team and is based in Missouri. She is responsible for early case evaluation (ECE). At the outset of each employment litigation matter, she identifies and reviews pertinent documents, interviews relevant witnesses, and drafts an ECE report for clients' cases. In keeping with each client's litigation philosophy, she partners with the local Littler litigation team and assists in developing and executing strategies for effectively handling litigation.

She has experience in all aspects of labor and employment litigation, including counseling clients, litigation strategy and limiting exposure, supervision of associates, paralegals and support staff, ediscovery production, and serving as first-chair in appellate arguments, trials, and arbitration. Staci's clients have included banking and financial institutions, consumer products manufacturers, transportation companies, residential developers, telecommunications companies, international hotels, and major retailers.

Staci previously was a partner with an international Am Law 100 law firm in Kansas City, Missouri. Staci was ranked first in her class in law school. She served as administrative editor of the UMKC Law Review, which was recognized in the "Worth Reading-Constitutional Law" section of the National Law Journal.
