Overview

Tasneem Zaman has more than 20 years of experience practicing U.S. immigration law. Her primary area of practice is employment and family based applications as well as naturalization and consular processing. She focuses on permanent labor certification cases with the U.S. Department of Labor.

Previously, Tasneem had been a solo practitioner in U.S. immigration law practice and was of counsel to six separate reputed law firms based in South Florida.

As a law student, Tasneem represented her country in several international debate and moot court competitions on human rights, particularly on women's rights. She graduated in the top two percent of her class.

She is also a writer/contributor of immigration related articles for ethnic magazines in South Florida.
