Overview

Zoe P. Grisz concentrates her practice on advising and representing employers in a broad range of labor and employment matters arising under both state and federal laws.

Prior to joining Littler, Zoe worked as an associate at a multidisciplinary international law firm, where she gained extensive experience defending her clients from civil and commercial claims.

During law school, Zoe served as a judicial extern to the Hon. Jorge Solis, Chief Judge for the Northern District of Texas and worked in the Travis County District Attorney's Office's Public Integrity and White Collar units. Zoe was also president of the law school's Women in Law and served as a chief of the Civil/Consumer Clinic.

Prior to attending law school, Zoe earned her TEFL Certification and spent a year teaching English to children and adults in Seoul, South Korea.
