Why Toronto?

Toronto is a modern, multi-cultural city with wonderful parks, neighbourhoods, restaurants, theaters, shopping and much more.

Top 3 Things To Do

- 1 St. Lawrence Market - This is a bustling food and crafts market in downtown Toronto. A eclectic mix of vendors tend to locals and tourists alike.
- 2 Shopping and Brunch in Yorkville - This is the premier place to see Toronto glamour and high-fashion on display. Where Toronto bourgeoisie come out to play.
- 3 Walk in High Park - In the west-end of Toronto, you will find great walking trails, dog runs, ponds and even a zoo. At the right time of year, the cherry blossoms feature and draw large crowds. A perfect place for a walk with a coffee and a good friend.

Coffee Places

- Dineen Coffee is the place to congregate for mid-day meetings in the financial district. With three different locations, enjoy their unique bold beans and company. A great place to run into friends and acquaintances.

Top 3 Restaurants

Traditional Food

- Scaramouche (1 Benvenuto Place) - One of Toronto's oldest, most loved restaurants; located in mid-town with a view of the Toronto sky-line. Enjoy high-end cuisine in the main restaurant, or something lighter in the pasta bar

Modern

- Restaurant 20 Victoria (20 Victoria St. Toronto) - Located in downtown Toronto, adjacent to the financial district, this small restaurant is where you will find the freshest, local ingredients being transformed into modern dishes by Canada's top chefs. Book well in advance.

Surprising

- Sunny's Chinese (60 Kensington Ave.) - A Michelin Bib Gourmand spot in Toronto's famous Kensington Market. Hidden away inside Kensington Mall, you will open the door and be transplanted into a joint where you feel the hustle and bustle of Toronto life. The food is incredible.
