From Here to Eternity: Managing Extended Leaves and Disability Accommodations

This session will discuss current trending leave and accommodation issues in the workplace. While the pandemic may have reduced the number of leave requests employers were receiving, reports suggest that requests for leaves of absence as an accommodation are once again on the rise. Put your thinking caps on with Kristy and Jacqueline as they explore the nuances of leave and accommodation issues in the modern workplace, including those pertaining to remote workers.

Speak-Up Culture: It's Loud, It's Messy, It's Better Than a Lawsuit

When you're inundated with reports ranging from minor grievances to substantive legal and policy concerns, it can be hard to see the benefit of encouraging complaints. This session will explore the benefits of encouraging internal reporting, practical strategies for fostering trust, and handling investigations with integrity and legal awareness. Attendees will gain insights into maintaining attorney-client privilege, collaborating across HR, compliance, and legal, and turning employee "noise" into actionable intelligence.
