Overview

Alan S. Levins is one of Littler Mendelson's most experienced trial attorneys, having tried discrimination, wrongful termination and class action wage-hour cases. He began his practice focused on traditional labor law and has continued his practice in that area as well. He also counsels and defends clients in:

- Complex litigation and jury trials
- Sexual harassment and discrimination litigation and counseling
- Class actions
- Whistleblower litigation and counseling
- Discipline and termination litigation and counseling

With extensive litigation experience in cases related to employment law, including numerous jury trials, Alan has appeared before the California Supreme Court on several occasions. He also practices before:

- Federal, district, appellate and Supreme courts
- Various state courts
- The National Labor Relations Board
- The Agricultural Labor Relations Board
- The California Labor Commissioner

- California's Occupational Safety and Health Administration
- The Employment Development Department

Alan works with a broad range of clients including:

- Biotech
- Real estate
- Manufacturing
- Retail
- Healthcare
- Hospitality
- Broadcast and print media
- Trucking
- Freight forwarding companies
- Law firms

Alan is a member of Littler Mendelson's Traditional Labor, Class Actions, Whistleblower and Wage and Hour practice groups. He also lectures on traditional labor law, wrongful termination, and sexual harassment.
