Overview

Annika Petty Storlie focuses her practice on employment litigation. She has defended clients in state and federal court and agency proceedings on a wide range of employment claims, including discrimination, harassment, retaliation, and wrongful termination.

Prior to joining Littler, Annika was an associate attorney at a litigation boutique in St. Paul, Minnesota. Annika also worked for two years as a judicial law clerk for the Hon. Edward Wahl in Hennepin County District Court. During law school, she was a student director of the Insurance Law Clinic.

Annika brings an unique perspective to her practice due to her former career in legislative politics. Before law school, Annika served for six years as the chief of staff to a Wisconsin legislator, in which she managed policy development, press communications, and constituent relations in a fast-paced office.
