Overview

Anthony J. Romano is an experienced trial lawyer who has represented clients in a variety of industries, including healthcare, construction, finance, sports management, manufacturing, pharmaceuticals and telecommunications. He has defended clients against charges and claims of employment discrimination, harassment and retaliation before courts across the U.S. as well as the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission. Over the course of his career, Tony has successfully tried employment cases to jury verdicts in multiple jurisdictions.

Tony also has extensive experience in protecting the intellectual property of employer clients and defending post-employment restrictions, including the enforcement of the Uniform Trade Secrets Act and restrictive covenants.
