Overview

Carlos Gonzalez leads Littler's digital transformation efforts and partners across the organization, working closely with practice groups and business services teams to implement process improvements. He oversees the firm's technology functions, including systems, data, infrastructure, security and talent, while guiding the responsible use of AI and other advanced technologies to improve client service, operational efficiency and productivity.

A seasoned enterprise technology executive for legal, healthcare and financial services companies, Carlos brings nearly 30 years of experience leading impactful technology and architecture initiatives—from cloud adoption, data governance and cybersecurity efforts to artificial intelligence (AI), automation and other enterprise-wide digital transformations.
