Overview

Dana Drusinsky brings over a decade of litigation experience as both a Deputy District Attorney and Deputy Public Defender. She has tried over thirty jury trials to verdict and litigated hundreds of evidentiary motions. Dana's experience extends beyond litigation – she has managed grand jury investigations, handled labor law disputes, and gained knowledge of data privacy regulations (including prior certification as a CIPP/E).

She currently serves as an adjunct professor at UC Law San Francisco, where she teaches legal research and writing.
