Overview

Dennis M. Brown is an experienced litigator with a special emphasis on complex litigation, including:

- Class and collective action avoidance and defense
- Wage and hour litigation and advice
- Sexual harassment
- Employment discrimination
- Wrongful termination
- Employment practices liability insurance matters

He represents clients in state and federal courts and before the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission, the Department of Fair Employment and Housing, and the California Labor Commissioner. He has experience with claims involving:

- Title VII
- The Fair Labor Standards Act
- The Fair Employment and Housing Act
- The California Labor Code
- California wage and hour laws

In addition to handling state and federal litigation and trial work, Dennis also handles arbitration and mediation. He serves a diverse group of clients, including:

- Large retail chains
- Banks and other financial institutions
- High-technology employers
- Pharmaceutical companies
- Construction companies
- Insurance companies
- Professional sports franchises

Highly-knowledgeable about employment practices liability insurance issues, Dennis has authored several articles on the subject. He also has been interviewed or quoted on the subject by several leading publications and news sources.

Dennis also regularly counsels employers on day-to-day employment law issues, such as compliance with workplace statutes and regulations, personnel policies, and risk management protocols including mandatory arbitration.

Dennis is co-creator of the firm's Risk Management Program. He previously served as office managing shareholder in Littler's San Jose office and was a member of the firm's Board of Directors. He is an initial founding member and past chair of the Governance Committee, as well as the past chair and a current member of the EPLI Committee, founding member and chair of the Board's Finance Committee, member of the firm's Global Board of Directors, and on the Board of Directors of Compliance HR. A frequent speaker before business and professional associations, Dennis has also served as an expert commentator for the national media on issues of sex harassment.
