Overview

Evan E. Kroll focuses his practice on defending employers in single plaintiff and class action litigation in California. He is laser-focused on delivering the best results possible for employers.

Evan has a demonstrated track record of delivering success to employers of all sizes. Evan second-chaired a two week jury trial in a litigation for a small hospitality client, which resulted in a complete defense verdict on claims for disability discrimination and whistleblower retaliation. Evan also second-chaired an arbitration in a breach of contract matter for a Fortune 50 client, resulting in a complete defense ruling.

Evan also uses his experience from a well-respected employee-side firm where he was employed during law school to anticipate issues and arguments both before and during litigation. This insight has proven invaluable in prevention and defense of litigation.

He also enjoys advising employers on various topics, including handbooks, policy changes, and discipline and termination of employees.

Evan prides himself on assisting employers in navigating California's extensive, and often confusing, employment laws.
