Overview

Jeremy Roth served as Littler's co-president and co-managing director for the firm from 2012-2020, guiding the firm's strategic direction and global growth strategy. He played a significant role in expanding the firm's global presence to include new offices throughout Central and Latin America, Europe and Asia. Additionally, Jeremy served for many years on the firm's board of directors and on the board of Littler Global. Previously, Jeremy was the office managing shareholder of Littler's San Diego office where he served in that capacity for 12 years.

Named one of the Most Powerful Employment Attorneys by Human Resource Executive and Lawdragon Inc., Jeremy has many years of experience handling all types of labor and employment matters. Jeremy has represented virtually every type of private employer in state and federal courts and before various government agencies. He has defended employers in all phases of litigation, including through state and federal jury trials, and has handled countless mediations and arbitrations in the areas of alleged discrimination, wrongful termination, employment-related torts, wage and hour claims, and class and collective action claims.

The media regularly turn to Jeremy for comments on legal industry trends and he has been quoted extensively in a variety of business and legal publications both in the U.S. and globally.
