Overview

Jeylimar Fuentes Rivera represents and advises clients on various aspects of labor and employment law. She assists clients with workplace issues such as wage disputes, discrimination claims, union negotiations, and compliance with federal and state laws. With strong legal research skills and a commitment to fairness, Jeylimar delivers personalized, solution-focused representation to employers.

While in law school, Jeylimar worked as law clerk for the Hon. Edgardo Rivera García, Associate Justice of the Puerto Rico Supreme Court. She was an associate and senior editor at the University of Puerto Rico Law Review and was part of the Probono Enlace con Escuelas Públicas where she helped create connections between public school students and the legal profession. In 2023 Jeylimar began her legal career as a law clerk.
