Overview

Joe Miguez has more than two decades of experience counseling employers and litigating complex employment law matters, including unfair competition and trade secrets disputes, as well as significant experience providing executive-level counsel as an in-house attorney at major global technology companies.

Previously, Joe was the principal employment law advisor for a multinational technology company's rapidly growing Austin campus. He provided strategic counsel across a broad spectrum of labor and employment matters, from risk mitigation and litigation strategy to executive hiring and workplace accommodations. Joe's background also includes advising on the use of AI and other emerging technologies to enhance workplace accommodations and accessibility for individuals with disabilities, as well as designing training programs and providing guidance on the development of new workplace policies. He formerly practiced at Littler from 2005 to 2011.
