Overview

Kelsey W. Libby is a member of the Littler CaseSmart® team and is based in Maine. As a brief writer assigned to single plaintiff litigation matters, she formulates and executes briefing strategy for cases. She evaluates and selects legal authority that supports the facts and circumstances of each case and prepares substantive briefs and motions, including complex dispositive motions, motions to compel arbitration, discovery motions and briefings concerning other strategic issues.

She previously worked at a leading firm in Portland, Maine, providing advice and counsel to employers in all aspects of labor law and employment law, as well as litigating cases in administrative agencies and state and federal court. After law school, Kelsey served as a judicial clerk to the Maine Superior Court, assisting the court with its civil and criminal dockets in multiple counties.
