Overview

Larissa M. Warren Whittingham is a member of the Littler CaseSmart® team and is based in Arkansas. She is responsible for early case evaluation (ECE). At the outset of each employment litigation matter, she identifies and reviews pertinent documents, interviews relevant witnesses, and drafts an ECE report for clients' cases. In keeping with each client's litigation philosophy, she partners with the local Littler litigation team and assists in developing and executing strategies for effectively handling litigation.

Larissa's legal experience includes running the employment litigation department of a Fortune 500 company and advancing industry interests in the courts as counsel for a national trade litigation center. Larissa has represented local, state, national, and international employers in federal courts throughout the country. As a passionate Supreme Court watcher, Larissa stays up to date on circuit splits in employment law and writes on constitutional law issues.
