Overview

As a member of the Littler CaseSmart – Charges™ team and based in Florida, Laura Kendall Sitarski is responsible for handling charges from investigation to conclusion. She works on client-dedicated service teams, focusing on handling administrative agency charges. She investigates charge allegations, reviews pertinent documents, interviews key witnesses, and provides clients an assessment of the risks associated with the charge. In partnership with the client, she defends the charge by drafting persuasive position statements and responses to the agency's requests for information.

Laura has over 20 years of experience in employment law in both in-house and large law firm settings. Her practice has spanned litigation and charge work; extensive advice and counsel work with both executive management and front-line employees; investigations; policy writing; leave of absence and accommodation management; performance management, discipline, and termination of employment; and multistate employment compliance.
