Overview

Lauren Koehler focuses her practice on labor and employment law matters.

Prior to joining Littler, she was a litigation associate at a highly reputable Phoenix law firm where she focused on transportation defense. Lauren was also an associate with a law firm that advised Fortune 500 clients on matters related to employment-based immigration including visa options, compliance requirements, and potential risks.

During law school, Lauren was an ASU liaison to the Young Lawyers Division of the Arizona State Bar, member of the Arizona Women's Lawyer Association Social Committee, ASU Law Ambassador, member of Women's Law Students Association, and an Arizona Legal Center volunteer. She received a CALI Award for her work as a student attorney for the First Amendment Clinic.
