Overview

Mathilde Gagey has been advising companies and corporate groups for over 20 years. She has developed extensive experience in the management of pre-litigation and litigation matters, with the ability to design precise legal strategies tailored to the company's operational and strategic challenges. Mathilde is well versed in risk assessment, negotiation processes, and the drafting of complex legal documentation. She demonstrates rigorous command of labour and civil court procedures, in particular proceedings before the French Labour Courts (Conseils de prud'hommes), with strict adherence to procedural deadlines and scheduling requirements. A responsive and reliable business partner, Mathilde ensures the immediate transmission of key information (adverse submissions, hearings, deliberations) and seamless coordination with in-house legal teams, in full respect of the strategic decisions defined by the latter. She delivers both in-depth legal advice and pragmatic, time-sensitive opinions, with a strong focus on quality, transparency and legal certainty.
