Overview

Philipp Schulte advises on individual and collective employment law issues with a focus on international employment law. A passionate sportsman, he is persistent and ambitious in his commitment to his clients. With his balancing manner, he helps to de-escalate conflicts and achieve sustainable solutions in employment law.

Philipp completed a legal traineeship with Littler in Hamburg, the Hamburg Labor Court and the think tank "Digital Labor Society" of the German Federal Ministry of Labor and Social Affairs in Berlin. He also was a research assistant in the employment law practice group of a Hamburg firm.

His background includes law studies at Bucerius Law School in Hamburg and Tulane University in New Orleans, Louisiana.
