Overview

Roschan Babat advises on topics such as individual employment law, transaction support and collective law issues and works council work. With his determination and perseverance, he advocates for his clients' interests with commitment and vision.

Roschan's aim is to maintain an overview even in complex and protracted proceedings and to develop efficient, practical solutions. Roschan is calm and even-tempered, especially in situations with challenging moments, and he attaches great importance to empathy. He strives to find solutions that are in the interests of both parties.

Before joining Littler, Roschan gained experience as a lawyer in the fields of employment and in employment, pensions, and incentives at other law firms in Frankfurt. He served his legal traineeship at the Higher Regional Court of Frankfurt am Main (District of Darmstadt).
