Overview

Sean D. Brown focuses his practice on assisting and advising employers on the complex federal laws governing various types of employee benefit arrangements, including defined contribution and defined benefit retirement plans, nonqualified deferred compensation plans, health and welfare benefit plans, and fringe benefits.

Sean has extensive experience designing plans, and drafting plan documents, amendments, and summary plan descriptions to ensure employer plans are compliant with ERISA and the Internal Revenue Code. In addition, he has assisted clients with correcting compliance issues under IRS and Department of Labor correction programs. He also addresses numerous issues with plan fiduciaries such as participant disclosures, plan investments, and potential prohibited transactions.

Sean earned an Employee Benefits Certificate from Georgetown University Law Center in 2010.
