Overview

Skye Hao focuses her practice on labor and employment law matters. Bilingual in English and Mandarin Chinese, she counsels clients with cross-border operations on global employment matters in regions around the world.

Prior to working at Littler, Skye worked in a national firm, where she served as a trusted advisor to U.S. and multinational employers. She advised on complex employment and compliance matters, including hiring, recruiting, compensation, benefits, employee relations, worker classifications and post-termination issues.

Domestically, Skye worked with an international firm in their intellectual property and corporate practice groups, and completed extern and internships with both the Gwinnett County District Attorney's Office and Cobb County District Attorney's Office. She volunteers with Atlanta Legal Aid as Young Lawyer Division Pro Bono Committee. While in law school, Skye was a member of the Moot Court Society.
