

Tore Lerheim

Partner

Akersgata 28

Oslo 0158 Norway

main: +47 23 89 75 70

direct: +47 932 59 552

fax: +47 23 89 75 71

tlrheim@littler.com

Overview

Tore Lerheim primarily works with employment law, pension law and litigation, and is admitted to the Norwegian Supreme Court. He also works with cases regarding contract law and private international law. He has assisted employees at all levels in all sectors, and acted as counsel for a broad range of companies.

He previously was a lawyer at Tekna (The Norwegian Society of Graduate Technical and Scientific Professionals), where he assisted members in matters regarding collective labor law issues and the employees' right to representation at the board of directors. He frequently holds lectures and seminars, and is also a teaching supervisor for law students.

Professional and Community Affiliations

- Member, The Norwegian Bar Association
- Member, The Norwegian Society of Labor Law
- Member, The Pension Forum

Education

Cand. jur., University of Oslo, 1998

Bar Admissions

Norway

Languages

Norwegian

English

Courts

Norwegian Supreme Court

Publications & Press

Littler Adds Oslo-Based Hombø Olsby to Global Platform, Marking Firm's Entry into Scandinavia

Press Release

January 23, 2019

Books & Book Chapters

- Summary of Norwegian Employment Law, International Labor and Employment Laws, American Bar Association, 2007
- Corporate Governance and Directors' Duties 2005, (together with Arne Didrik Kjølner), Global Counsel Handbooks, 2005